Emergency Medical Services

Students who have passed the New York State Department of Health Advanced Emergency Medical Technician - Paramedic (AEMT-P) certification examination or an equivalent certification from another jurisdiction. Nine credits will be awarded for this certification. These credits will be electives that go towards the 120 credit total for the B.S. degree. Note, these credits may not be applied toward the major. Note that while credits may be awarded for other levels of Emergency Medical Technician certification (CFR, EMT-B, AEMT-I, or AEMT-CC), these credits will not satisfy the requirements of the major.
